

Introducing our Summer Students

2021

Roxanne Lamarche | U de M
Moncton

Roxanne was born and raised in Caraquet and graduated from Polyvalente Louis Mailloux. Prior to law school, she completed a Bachelor of Social Science with a major in Psychology and a minor in Criminology from the Université de Moncton. Since her first year in law school, Roxanne has been involved in several pro bono projects such as creating a booklet for the Association francophone des parents du Nouveau-Brunswick and providing Family Law Legal Information sessions. Outside her studies, Roxanne enjoys spending time with family and friends, cooking, reading, hiking and other outdoor activities.

Michelle Berube | DAL
Moncton

Michelle grew up in Cornwall, Ontario, before moving to Ottawa and then to Halifax. She obtained a BSocSc and a Master in Anthropology from the University of Ottawa before pursuing a joint law degree and Master of Health Administration at Dalhousie University. Michelle is interested in the intersection between health, culture, and the law. She is passionate about health equity, and has volunteered with the HOPES student-led health clinic in Halifax for three years. Although already bilingual in French and English, she is always trying to pick up new languages to add to her collection. In her spare time Michelle enjoys reading, knitting, painting, and discovering new foods.

Victoria Flaherty | McGill
Fredericton

Victoria grew up in Alberta before moving to Montréal to pursue her honours BA at McGill University. She will be returning to McGill in the fall to pursue a JD and BCL. Victoria holds a master's degree in political science and environmental studies from the University of Toronto, where she focused her research on environmental and labour regulations in the fashion industry. In her spare time, Victoria loves cooking, playing volleyball, and writing. Although she misses the Rockies terribly, she is so excited to get to know Fredericton better!

Garrett Wollis-Gullet | UNB
Fredericton

Garrett was born and raised in Port Colborne, Ontario and moved to Fredericton in 2019. He earned an Honours degree in sociology with a concentration in criminology from Brock University. Upon graduating from Brock in 2019, he saw an opportunity for change and a new environment in pursuing his law degree at UNB. Garrett is interested primarily in criminal, administrative, and intellectual property law. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking, attempting to become a better cook, reading, and watching hockey.

Katie MacDermaid | UNB
Fredericton

Katie was born and raised in Bathurst, NB and spent most of her childhood at the beach. She pursued a Liberal Arts degree at St. Thomas University, where she also played varsity soccer and was part of the ACAA championship team in 2018. She majored in Communications and Public Policy and completed an Honours in Great Books before being accepted to UNB's Faculty of Law. She is a passionate mental health advocate and was recently elected to student government in this capacity. She volunteers regularly for local causes and is currently the Lead In-Home Support Coordinator for ElderDog's Fredericton chapter. In her spare time Katie enjoys coaching, playing sports, and walking her dogs.

Bliss White | McGill
Saint John

Bliss White is a lifelong Saint Johner. He is a Bachelor of Civil Law/Juris Doctor candidate at McGill University's Faculty of Law. Now in his second year, he serves as a junior managing editor of the McGill Journal of Law and Health. He is interested in establishing a general legal practice in NB. Bliss holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in History with Distinction from St. Thomas University. As an undergraduate, he completed an internship with an international trade consultancy in Washington, DC. He later earned a Master of Arts in History at UNB. He was a research assistant for New Brunswick's Legislative Library. His work has been featured in Acadiensis, the leading journal of Atlantic Canadian History. Bliss has participated with the New Brunswick Historical Society; he's a keen student of the province's cultural heritage.

Kyle Barrie | DAL
Saint John

Kyle was born and raised on the South Shore of Nova Scotia, in Bridgewater. He then moved to Halifax to study at Dalhousie University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in commerce, along with a minor in French. After completing his undergrad, Kyle stayed at Dalhousie and started studying at the Schulich School of Law. During his time so far at Schulich, Kyle has been an executive member of Law Hour, a society that hosts weekly speakers from the legal community. In his spare time, Kyle enjoys playing ultimate frisbee, watching soccer, and trying not to embarrass himself while golfing.

Richard Ivey | UNB
Saint John

Richard is from Maxwell, a small village in rural NB, and is currently a third year law student at UNB. He received an undergraduate degree in philosophy from UNB, and was studying a master's degree in philosophy at SMU before switching to law school. During his time in university, he competed as a varsity track and field athlete, was a member of student government, and participated in several community improvement projects. With a passion for access to justice, he hopes to demystify and streamline the law. Broadly, he believes that the law is an organic system, whose growth should be guided to serve the needs of society. If someone is ever looking for him, he can be found reading science fiction in a library, hiking in a forest, or attempting to play guitar on a patio.

Introducing our Articled Clerks

2021

Nicole Pelletier | UNB

Fredericton

Nicole spent most of her childhood living in Halifax, NS. She attended Dalhousie University and earned a BSc, majoring in neuroscience and minoring in French. Nicole recently completed her 3rd year of the JD program at the University of New Brunswick. During her time in the JD program, she was involved with many extra-curricular activities and the school's competitive moot program; this past year, Nicole was the chair of the Graduation Committee and competed in the Wilson Moot. In her free time, Nicole enjoys cooking, hiking, spending time with friends, and hanging out with her cat.

Dawson Harrison | UNB

Fredericton

Dawson was born and raised in New Maryland. He earned an Honours degree in Sociology from St. Thomas University before attending law school at the University of New Brunswick. During law school, he has volunteered with the Fredericton Legal Advice Clinic and has served as the Coordinator of the Student Legal Information Centre at the University of New Brunswick. Dawson is a proud New Brunswicker, in his free time he enjoys golfing or spending time at home with his fiancée and their dog.

Matthew LeBlanc | McGill

Fredericton

Matt is a native of Fredericton. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts ('18) with honours in Political Science and honours in Great Books from St. Thomas University. He then moved to Montréal, Québec to obtain both a Juris Doctor ('21) and a Bachelor of Civil Laws ('21) from McGill University's Faculty of Law. He was a teaching assistant for first year Constitutional Law, has chaired the board of a health insurance provider, and has been published in various legal journals. Matt is bilingual in English and French and is an avid skier, hiker, and tenor sax player.

Daniel Lavin | UNB

Saint John

Daniel was born and raised in Saint John and earned a Bachelors of Business Administration through UNB

Saint John's Co-operative Education program. Daniel spent his tenure as a co-op student with a large oil and gas company, having worked mostly in regulatory reporting and compliance. Daniel then pursued Law at UNB, graduating in 2021. As a law student Daniel participated in intramural hockey, as well as volunteer initiatives at Fredericton Legal Advice Clinic and UNB's Student Legal Information Center. Much of Daniel's free time is devoted to physical activity, including hiking, weight lifting, and martial arts.

Alex Rice-Hoyt | McGill
Saint John

Born and raised as a Saint Johner, Alex has long looked forward to returning home following his studies. A valedictorian of Saint Malachy's, he went on to graduate with distinction from the Ivey School of Business. Attracted by its transsystemic approach to legal education, he then received a J.D. and a B.C.L. from McGill's Faculty of Law. With stints in equity research and commodities trading, Alex hopes to leverage his background in finance and the oil and gas industry. In his spare time, Alex enjoys reading biographies, running, and learning — very slowly — to play the bagpipes.

Ryan Craig | DAL
Saint John

Ryan was born and raised in Saint John. He studied biology at Acadia University in Wolfville, NS where he earned his undergraduate degree. His time studying biology allowed him to explore his interest in science while preparing for law school and he carries this interest with him today. After graduating, he moved to Halifax to attend the Schulich School of Law at Dalhousie University. Now, having earned his degree, he is thrilled to be returning home to practice in the city where he grew up. In his spare time Ryan enjoys reading, movies, spending time with his family and dog, and learning to cook.

Robynn MacDonald | UNB
Saint John

Robynn was raised in Fredericton and attended UNB where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Biology. After completing her undergraduate degree, Robynn continued her education at UNB at the Faculty of Law. During her time in law school, Robynn spent two years working in the Premier's Office as a Policy Advisor. In addition to her work in politics, Robynn enjoys spending her free time outdoors, including hiking, camping, and kayaking.

Jordan Hamilton | UNB
Moncton

Jordan was born and raised in Toronto, Ontario and he grew up looking forward to spending his summers at his family cottage in

New Brunswick. He earned a Bachelor of Business Management at Dalhousie University prior to attending law school at the University of New Brunswick. Throughout law school, Jordan volunteered at the UNB Student Legal Information Clinic. At both Dal and UNB, Jordan was an active member of the universities' musical communities. He also enjoys woodworking and is an avid fan of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Graecen Wyton | DAL
Moncton

Graecen grew up in Riverview, NB and pursued a Bachelor of Business Administration at the University of New Brunswick.

While at UNB, she was VP Finance for the Business Administration Undergraduate Society and a peer mentor for incoming students. Graecen knew she wanted to pursue a career in law since high school and was excited to attend the Schulich School of Law in NS. While obtaining her law degree, she was involved in the Law Hour Speaker Series, held a position as VP of the Social Committee, worked on two pro bono projects and was a volunteer for the Canadian Red Cross. In her spare time, Graecen likes reading, improving her cooking and baking skills, as well as spending time with friends and family.
