2021

Please join the Recruitment Committee in welcoming our 2021 Summer Students, who will be working in the St. John's office.

Madison grew up in Goose Bay, Labrador, where she lived until moving to Fredericton, NB, to pursue a Business/Law concurrent degree at the University of New Brunswick. She recently graduated from the BBA program with a concentration in accounting while simultaneously completing 1L. Madison has volunteered at tax clinics in the Fredericton area to improve the accessibility of income tax knowledge as well as mentoring indigenous youth across Canada who are looking to pursue post-secondary education. In her spare time, Madison loves running, yoga, shopping (a little too much), and exploring St. John's while living there for the first time!

Rachel Delaney | 1L, DAL

Rachel grew up in Mount Pearl, Newfoundland. She completed an undergraduate degree in Civil Engineering at Memorial University. Prior to attending the Schulich School of Law, she worked as a structural and subsea Engineer in Training. Throughout 1L she volunteered with the Atlantic Refugee Immigration Services program assisting individuals with the completion and submission of citizenship and sponsorship applications. She now volunteers with the MUN food bank delivering food hampers. Outside of work and school, Rachel enjoys reading, listening to podcasts, hiking, and spending time with her dog (Leo) and cat (Dwight).

Claire Dowden | 1L, DAL

Claire is a proud townie and passionate Newfoundlander. She earned a B.A. in English and Communication Studies and was awarded both the University Medal for Academic Excellence in Communication Studies and the Reginald H. Brown Q.C. Memorial Scholarship upon convocation. During her undergraduate studies, Claire worked as a Page in the House of Assembly, as a Communications Specialist with the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, and as a Writing Tutor at Memorial University's Writing Centre. She is now pursuing her JD at the Schulich School of Law where she is VP Student Life and Vice Chair of the Feminist Legal Association. Claire brings her love for learning to Cox & Palmer, and is very much looking forward to spending her summer exploring the legal world as well as the East Coast Trail and her favourite local restaurants.

Alysa O'Keefe | 2L, DAL

Alysa was born and raised in Newfoundland, and the East Coast is her favourite place that she has called home. She graduated in 2019 from Memorial University School of Music, with an Honours Degree in Vocal Performance. While opera-singing might not have been the most obvious precursor to law school, she is now completing her JD at Dalhousie University Schulich School of Law, where she was recently selected for the 2022 Wilson Moot and received honours in oral advocacy. She has been heavily involved on campus at both schools and is currently a program coordinator with Pro Bono Dalhousie. This position gives Alysa the chance to work with high school students in the Halifax Metro area to deliver seminars and other educational opportunities related to work in various legal fields and broader policy issues affecting their communities. When she is not at school or in the office, Alysa can often be found experimenting with a new cocktail recipe, doing yoga, or cooking with friends.

Lynn Sullivan | 2L, DAL

Lynn is returning to Cox & Palmer to begin her second career. She is a CPA and formerly held the role of COO of the St. John's office. She returns to the firm as a 2nd year law student from Schulich School of Law. Lynn has a varied background with experience in the oil and gas industry, government, and business ownership. She has been an active volunteer on boards including the YMCA of Newfoundland and Labrador, Public Legal Information Association of NL, St. John's Board of Trade, and the Community Sector Council of NL. When not at a hockey rink or dance performance for her children, Lynn can be found hiking the East Coast Trail or enjoying a meal and glass of wine at a local restaurant.

Carolyn Woolridge | 3L, UNB

Carolyn grew up in St. John's, Newfoundland before moving to Wolfville, NS to complete a Bachelor of Kinesiology with Honours from Acadia University. She worked as a Kinesiologist prior to moving to Fredericton, NB to attend the University of New Brunswick to complete her law degree. While at law school, Carolyn volunteered with the Pro Bono Imprint TransID Clinic, helping gender non-conforming folks with the complications of changing their name and gender markers on identification. She was also a member of UNB's Feminist Legal Association and was the co-chair for the school's Social Committee for two years. In her spare time, Carolyn can be found enjoying local coffee shops, breweries, and restaurants, usually with a friend. If you have scoured the breweries and coffee shops with no luck, it is likely that she is watching reruns of RuPaul's Drag Race.

Emily Hickey | 3L, DAL

A Newfoundlander born and bred; Emily grew up in the West end of St. John's. Prior to attending the Schulich School of Law at Dalhousie, Emily completed her Bachelor of Commerce (Honours)

Co-operative at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Emily has always had a passion for being the voice of those who have been silenced. She continues to exercise this passion through her entrepreneurial pursuits and her place in the legal world. Outside of work, you can find Emily at a spin studio on a stationary bike, at a restaurant with friends/family, or home with her sweet kitten Mochi.

Kaylyn Anthony | 3L, DAL

During her time at Schulich, she served on the Dalhousie Employment and Labour Law Association's executive team as well as Co-Chair of Dalhousie's Community Outreach Society for the last two years of her studies. In her spare time, Kaylyn enjoys spending time with friends and family, memory planning, and playing volleyball. If you ever want to see a cute picture of a miniature dachshund to brighten your day, Kaylyn has lots of her puppy, Tessa!
