

Introducing our Summer Students

2022

Meghan Beers | DAL
Saint John

Meghan was born and raised in Quispamsis, NB. She attended Mount Allison University where she obtained a Bachelor of Commerce with Majors in Commerce and Psychology. She then moved to Halifax, NS to attend law school at Dalhousie University. During this time, she has volunteered with ARIS where she helped immigrants and refugees navigate the application process for citizenship, family sponsorships, and permanent residency. In her spare time she enjoys baking, travelling, and crocheting items for people experiencing homelessness.

Caroline Korytko | U de M
Moncton

Caroline spent her early childhood in Montreal, QC before moving to the Maritimes. She completed a Bachelor of Arts with a major in criminology at Saint-Mary's University in Halifax. Following her undergrad, and as an advocate for social justice, she did outreach with people experiencing homelessness, which inspired her to apply to law school. During her time at law school, she has been involved in the ProBono program while also volunteering with LegalAid NB, and the YMCA. During her free time, you can find her walking her three dogs, travelling and connecting with the outdoors.

Jarrod Ryan | UNB
Fredericton

Jarrod grew up mostly in Ontario but has proudly called Fredericton home since 2009. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts ('19) from St. Thomas University before moving to Halifax, Nova Scotia to obtain a Master of Business Administration ('21) from Dalhousie University. During his undergraduate degree, Jarrod played junior hockey and was the Chair of St. Thomas University's Student Representative Council. Now in his first year of law school, Jarrod serves as the President of the Business Law Society at UNB Law. He is keenly interested in Corporate Finance & Securities, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Tax Law. In his free time, Jarrod enjoys running, playing hockey, and trying desperately to shoot under 100 in golf.

Alexander Huelin | UNB
Saint John

Alexander was born and raised in Hampton, just outside of Saint John. He has called Fredericton home for the past 7 years where he graduated from UNB's Renaissance College in 2019 and is now pursuing his J.D. at UNB Law. As an active member of the UNB community, Alexander held several executive positions including directing logistics for two conferences and serving a Co-Chair for UNB Law's Orientation team. With a love for travelling, Alexander spent 3 months in Beijing, China, completing an international internship. Outside of studying and extra-curriculars, you can generally find Alexander on the golf course, trying new foods, or spending time with friends and family around a fire or around a BBQ.

Riley Loughhead | UNB
Fredericton

Before moving to Fredericton to attend the University of New Brunswick, Riley was born and raised in the town of Grandy Bay-Westfield, NB. In 2018, Riley graduated with a Bachelor of Arts, majoring in History with a focus on military history. Before starting her studies at UNB Law, Riley spent two years working in the real estate industry and becoming involved as the leader of a non-profit organization called ElderDog Fredericton. After 1L, Riley was a member of the 2021-2022 UNB Law Orientation Committee and is excited to serve as the Orientation Committee Chair for the incoming class of 2022-2023. In her spare time, Riley enjoys continuing her commitment to ElderDog Fredericton, working on home renovation projects, doing freelance drone photography for local real estate teams, and taking care of her 5 pets.

Gabriel Laidlaw-Bale | UNB
Fredericton

Gabriel was Born in Ottawa, Ontario, before moving overseas with his family due to his father’s job in the foreign service. Growing up, Gabriel moved often, living in Russia, Pakistan, the Philippines, and Taiwan. He finished off his last two years of high school back in Ottawa, he went on to complete a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry at Ryerson University in Toronto and is now finishing his education at UNB Law in Fredericton. During his time at law school, he has been involved with two different Pro Bono Students Canada projects and plans to apply for another one in his third year. He has also been a leading member of the Restorative Justice Society at UNB and was recently elected president of that organization going into his third year at law school. In his spare time Gabriel enjoys spending time with his friends, playing board games, and though recent circumstances have not allowed for it he loves to travel.

Bliss White | McGill
Saint John

Bliss White is a native of Saint John. He is a Bachelor of Civil Law/Juris Doctor candidate at McGill University’s Faculty of Law. He has finished his third year of a three-and-a-half-year program. In law school, Bliss has served as a senior editor of the McGill Journal of Law and Health. He is interested in establishing a general legal practice in New Brunswick. He will clerk at the Court of Appeal of New Brunswick in 2023-24. Bliss holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in History with Distinction from St. Thomas University. As an undergraduate, he completed an internship with an international trade consultancy in Washington, DC. He later earned a Master of Arts in History at the University of New Brunswick. He was a research assistant at New Brunswick’s Legislative Library. His work has been featured in Acadiensis, the leading journal of Atlantic Canadian History. Bliss is happy to return to Cox and Palmer’s Saint John office for a second summer.

Charles-Olivier Roussel | U de M
Moncton

Charles-Olivier Roussel is from Le Goulet, a village in North-eastern New Brunswick, and is currently a second year law student at Université de Moncton. He obtained a Bachelor of Business Administration and a Master of Business Administration with Distinction from the Université de Moncton. In parallel to his studies, the opportunity to be a crab fisherman for a few years allowed him to become aware of the various environmental and administrative aspects of the fishing industry, as well as a desire to pursue his law degree. In his spare time, he enjoys playing sports, cooking and camping.

Jenna Smith | uOttawa
Fredericton

Jenna was born and raised in Hamilton, Ontario. She completed a BA in Political Science at the University of Guelph where she was a vital member of the Varsity Track and Field Team, medalling in her individual events at both the Ontario University Championships and the U Sports Canadian National Championships. She is in her second year of law school at the University of Ottawa, where she is an Editor of the Ottawa Law Review. Having visited New Brunswick several times, Jenna is looking forward to working in Fredericton this summer and exploring more of this beautiful province.

Mark Robertson | DAL
Saint John

Mark grew up in Auckland, New Zealand, before moving to Vancouver to pursue a Master of Science in Zoology at the University of British Columbia. It was his work at a non-profit that inspired him to pursue a Juris Doctor at the Schulich School of Law. Along with his studies, Mark has enjoyed volunteering for projects about youth legal education and public interest environmental issues. He is also on the executive of the Dalhousie Law Hiking Society, where he shares his passion for natural history with his peers. Mark has fallen in love with the Maritimes and is excited to start a career in Saint John.
